CONTENTS

Preface and Acknowledgements 11

Editors' Introduction 12

1. Why the Case Method and Why Contract Enforcement? 14
2. On the Methodology Employed 20
3. On the Structure of the Chapters 25
4. Problems with Enforcement in Central and Eastern Europe: Procedural Issues
5. Problems with Enforcement in Central and Eastern Europe: Substantive Law-Related Issues 29
   - 5.1. Contracts as Out-of-court Creditor-Protective Mechanisms 29
   - 5.2. Novel Types of Transactions on the Soil of Central and Eastern Europe 31
   - 5.3. Penalty Clauses: A Successful Survivor from Socialism? 32
   - 5.4. Why are Transactions in Company Shares a Particular Problem for Courts? 33
6. Openness of Central and Eastern European Courts: Can Foreign Court Decisions and Foreign Arbitral Award be Easily Enforced in the Region? .. 34
7. What has been Learnt: Proposals for International Harmonization? 35
8. Caveats to the Reader 37

Chapter One: Enforcement of Contracts in Albania – Overcoming Dilemmas in an Emerging Market by Arnisa Gorezi & Evgjeni Bashari 40

Chapter Two: Enforcement of Contracts in the Czech Republic by Anna Hergottová 133

Chapter Three: Enforcement of Contracts in Hungary by Zsófia Oláh & Csongor István Nagy 215

Chapter Four: Enforcement of Contracts in Lithuania by Lina Aleknaite 316

Chapter Five: Enforcement of Contracts in the Republic of Moldova: the Impact of a Slow Transition by Alexandr Svetlicinii 418

Chapter Six: Enforcement of Contracts in Poland by Krzysztof Kaźmierczyk & Filip Kijowski 531

Chapter Seven: Enforcement of Contracts in Romania by Ileana M. Smeureanu & Florentin Giurgea 669

Chapter Eight: Enforcement of Contracts in Russia – Positive Developments and Persisting Dilemmas by Yuliya Guseva & Oleksiy Kononov 755

Chapter Nine: Enforcement of Contracts in Serbia by Slobodan Doklestić & Zoltán Víg 849

Chapter Ten: Enforcement of Contracts in Ukraine by Leonila Guglya & Oleksiy Kononov 961

Appendix: Brief Biographies of the Contributors 1078