

ABSTRACT

This paper is aimed to analyze the action of the back-row players and situations when it is played with and without the corrector (sweeper). The paper aims to present the proper and coordinated action of the back-row line players of defense in different game situations in order to prevent the opponent from scoring.

Moreover, the subject of a presentation and methodological procedures and adequate learning exercise and tactical training procedures of the back-row players in different situations, which are the essence of the football game.

The issue of the paper is the active display of the basic tactical procedures and practices of the back row player of a football team during the match, the method of their learning and development, as well as the variety of exercises that can be used in the process of training and development.

Moreover, the issue of work also represents a determination of the relevant factors which depends on the successful operation of a back row player in the modern football game systems.

The first part of the paper includes historical development of the football game.

The second part focuses on the analysis of the impact of tactics to change the system of football games, players in the defense area, the basic functions of the individual players and the goalkeeper in the system of game.

Third part of the paper explains the position of players on the field in the structure of the defense "backwards 4"

Key words: Football, Game Tactic, Defense, back-row players.