

CONTENT

I. DEVELOPMENT OF VICTIMOLOGY	9
II. NEW VICTIMOLOGIES IN BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA.....	13
III. SEXUAL CRIME (CRIMINAL-VICTIMOLOGICAL ASPECTS, OVERVIEW OF CRIMINAL PROFILE)	17
1. Guidelines	17
2. Types of rape.....	18
3. Victims as source of criminal information	21
4. Minutes on receiving criminal charges related to rape	22
5. Statement of a victim	24
5.1. Basic Tactical Rules for Conducting Informative Interview	27
5.2. Case study - Sexual assault of a child	28
5.3. Informative interview with the victim.....	30
6. Sexual abuse of children	32
6.1. Anonymous and pseudonymous application	33
6.2. Finding out from the mass media	33
7. Overview of victims.....	33
8. Types of sexual abuse of a child	35
8.1. Sexual abuse of a child by making physical contact between the offender and the victim	35
8.2. Sexual abuse of a child without physical contact between the offender and the victim	36
8.3. Sexual abuse of a child by compulsion to communicate with animals	36
IV. FORENSIC VICTIMOLOGY	39
1. The victim like active source of criminal information.....	42
1.1. Victim's Personal Statement.....	42
1.2. Victim's statement about the perpetrator of the crime	49
1.3. Victim's statement about the consequences of the crime	54
1.3.1. Crime victim's reparations committee.....	57
1.4. Active involvement of the victim in the collection of evidence of the crime committed	59
1.5. Victim as witness in criminal proceedings.....	63
2. The victim as passive source of criminal information (documenting the crime)	65
2.1. Biological clues of sexual violence	68
2.2. DNA Analysis.....	74
2.3. Verification of the victim's testimony	79
2.4. Chemical clues about sexual doping	81
2.5. Medical examination - gynecological examination.....	83
2.6. Expertise of the victim's physical injuries	88
2.7. Toxicological expertise.....	90
2.8. Expertise of the victim's clothing.....	92
2.9. Testimony of secondary victims.....	94

V. VICTIMLOGY RESEARCH CASE STUDY: SEXUAL VIOLENCE DURING THE WAR IN BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA (1992-1995)	97
1. Instrument of support for victims of sexual violence in conflict in the trial process (case study presentation)	97
2. On victim support instruments in the judiciary (trial process)	100
3. A case study	103
4. Analysis of applied psychological support instruments for the victim in the prevention of secondary victimization caused by testimony	105
VI. FORENSIC PSYCHOLOGY	113
1. Psychological assessment of victim's pain threshold and suffering	114
2. Psychological expertise of validity of confessions	120
3. Psychological profiling	125
VII. VICTIMOLOGICAL PROFILING	133
VIII. VICTIMOLOGICAL RESEARCH OF THE CASE STUDIES: VICTIMS OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING IN BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA	137
IX. THE SIGNIFICANCE OF FORENSIC VICTIMOLOGY AND PSYCHOLOGY FOR VICTIMS OF SEXUAL VIOLENCE	141
1. Legal protection of victims of sexual violence in Bosnia and Herzegovina	161
1.1. Rights for the victim of sexual violence	162
1.2. Procedural measures for the protection of victims	167
1.3. Protection of witnesses undertaken and involved witnesses as explosive right to protect only on witnesses of serious crime provided in the law on criminal procedure of Bosnia and Herzegovina	171
1.3.1. Department of Protection (SIPA)	173
1.3.2. Department of Operational Support	173
1.4. Out-of-process victim protection measures	174
1.5. Special protection for children with developmental disabilities	178
1.6. Penalties as satisfaction for victims of sexual crimes	185
2. Restorative justice for victims of sexual crimes	190
X. REHABILITATION OF VICTIMS OF SEXUAL VIOLENCE	193
XI. REINTEGRATION OF VICTIMS OF SEXUAL VIOLENCE	199
REFERENCES	211