

Contents

Introduction 1

James Campbell

Runaway: Eighteenth-century Slave Advertisements 9

Anon.

The Voices of the Coloured People . . . 12

William F. Allen

Slave Singers 13

Fanny Kemble

Music on the Plantation 15

Solomon Northup

Collecting Negro Spirituals 19

Thomas W. Higginson

'When Malindy Sings' (poem) 26

Paul Laurence Dunbar

Of the Sorrow Songs 29

W. E. B. DuBois

I Was Scott Joplin's Pupil 36

S. Brunson Campbell

'Mobile-Buck' (poem) 39

James Edwin Campbell

Work-songs 41

William Ferris

'Southern Road' (poem) 44

Sterling Brown

Contents

Henry Ford Blues 46

Paul Oliver

Woman's Blues (songs) 49

Anon.

Prison Blues 54

Doc Reese

Ain't No More Cane 75

Samuel B. Charters

'Back Water Blues' (song) 77

Anon.

The Death of Bessie Smith 78

Chris Albertson

Sexual Imagery in the Blues 89

Gregory R. Staats

Blues People 96

Ralph Ellison

Forming the Buddy Bolden Band 105

Donald M. Marquis

'Coming through Slaughter' (fiction) 108

Michael Ondaatje

Early Ideas on the Origin of the Word 'Jazz' 117

David Boulton

The Music of the Degenerate 119

Maxim Gorky

Jazz Comes to Revolutionary Russia 122

S. Frederick Starr

Down Beat: Front Page 127

Louis Armstrong: The First Great Soloist 131

Gunther Schuller

A Vocabulary of Swing Terms 134

Real Musician 140

Norman Sullivan

Dope 142

Mezz Mezzrow

The Swing Era: Big Bands, Big Money, and the Breakdown of Some Racial

Barriers 148

Nat Hentoff and Nat Shapiro

Picking up Money 166

Billie Holiday

Remembering Jimmy Rushing 170

Ralph Ellison

'Solo on the Drums' (fiction) 175

Ann Petry

'For Sidney Bechet' (poem) 181

Philip Larkin

'Guitar' (poem) 182

Owen Dodson

'Dream Boogie' (poem) 184

Langston Hughes

'Tammy' . . . 'Ida' . . . 'Dinah' . . . 'Margie' . . . 185

Joseph Levey

The International Sweethearts of Rhythm 195

Marian McPartland

Jazz in a Nazi Concentration Camp 211

Eric Vogel

Red Music 224

Josef Škvorecký

Jazz Chronicle 239

Boris Vian

The Court-Martial of Lester Young 245

John McDonough

'Wing' (fiction) 253

John Clellon Holmes

'There You Go-Orooni' (fiction) 258

Jack Kerouac

Monk, Blindfold 260

Leonard Feather

Mingus and His Psychiatrist 267

Charles Mingus

Mingus at Peace 270

Whitney Balliett

On Bird, Bird-Watching and Jazz 280

Ralph Ellison

The Death of Bird 283

Baroness de Koenigswarter

'Round About Close to Midnight' (fiction) 287

Boris Vian

In the Studio with Miles and Louis 292

Nat Hentoff

Bendin' the Horn 307

Dizzy Gillespie

Letter to the Editor of Down Beat 309

Stan Getz

On the Road with Stan Kenton's Band, 1946-52 311

Art Pepper

'Here Where Coltrane Is' (poem) 322

Michael S. Harper

Of the Sorrow Songs: The cross of redemption 324

James Baldwin

Black Consciousness and the White Jazz Fan 332

James Lincoln Collier

Ornette Coleman Learns to Play the Saxophone 337

John Litweiler

Miles and Me 339

Mike Zwerin

Just How Much Did Elvis Learn from Otis Blackwell? 346

Gary Giddens

Howlin' Wolf Meets the Critic 354

Peter Guralnick

Blues House Party 357

William Ferris

Tradition, Influence and Innovation 379

Geoff Dyer

Acknowledgements 391

Index 397