DEDICATION

To my incredible family, for putting up with all the travel and late night coaching calls to students, and for supporting me as I live the life of my dreams. To David, who is my best friend and business partner, thank you for believing in me more than I thought possible. And to Dad, thanks for everything, especially when I feel loved by you.

—PETER CONTI

Thank you Peter for being my best friend and business partner. You are my mentor and have been such an uplifting role model in my life, both in terms of my business success and in my growth as an individual. I also want to give thanks to my family for supporting me, not just now with my business, but earlier too with my dreams of the Olympics. Thank you Heather for your love and support. Finally, I just wanted to tell the world how grateful I am for the many wonders that have come into my life these past few years. It's been an exciting time.
