
Contents

Foreword—Defending the U.S. Credit System, by Dianne Wilkman, President & CEO of Springboard Non-Profit Consumer Credit Management	vii
Chapter 1—Knowing Where to Start Don't despair! In this chapter you'll find simple steps you can take to get yourself out of debt and back on the road to financial security.	1
Chapter 2—Budgeting Hate budgets? In this chapter you'll discover the secrets to making budgeting painless and effective.	19
Chapter 3—Basic Debt Handling Here, we'll look at your particular kind of debt and discuss some strategies you can use to start finding your way out of the debt wilderness.	41
Chapter 4—10 Different Kinds of Debt and How to Address Them We'll sit down and go over the 10 different kinds of debt and the techniques and tricks for dealing with each.	55
Chapter 5—Credit Counseling Lots of people promise to “repair” your credit—we'll show you how it's really done.	73

Chapter 6—A Closer Look at Credit	85
Everyone needs it, but not everyone understands it. Here you'll learn more about credit, how it can help you, and how to keep your credit healthy.
Chapter 7—Banking	97
A good relationship with your financial institution is essential to your credit health. If you use it right, your bank can help you stay debt-free and credit-rich.
Chapter 8—Surviving the Journey	109
Staying out of debt doesn't have to be a never-ending struggle. We'll show you how to make sure you stay on the financial straight and narrow.
Chapter 9—Special Problems	121
We'll show you how to manage those unexpected and unwanted financial emergencies, from identity theft to unemployment.
Chapter 10—Breaking the Cycle: What to Tell Your Children	139
Why getting your kids involved in the family budget is the best way to help them develop healthy financial habits.
Index	147