

Contents

List of Cases	xi
Preface	xiii
1 Public Relations: Maintaining Mutually Beneficial Systems of Stakeholder Relationships	1
Practicing Public Relations	1
Public Relations Processes Within Systems	2
Ethical and Legal Perspectives	3
Case-Study Analysis	4
Additional Readings	5
2 Stakeholders: Employees	7
Employee Satisfaction Pays Measurable Returns	8
Effective Leaders Inspire Trust and Confidence	9
Source of Satisfaction: Open and Honest Communication	9
Media Channels for Employees	10
Additional Readings	11
Case 1. A New Kind of Car, a New Kind of Team: Saturn Comes to Tennessee	12 v

Case 2. Freddie Mac Employees Get Prompt Report on Sweeping Changes	16
Case 3. Southwest Airlines Finds a Payoff in Avoiding Employee Layoffs	21
Case 4. Teamsters Deliver Public Support During the UPS Strike	26
Case 5. Handling a Crisis: The U.S. Postal Service Responds to Anthrax Attacks	30
PROFESSIONAL INSIGHTS: The Management Champion of Social Responsibility, by James E. Grunig, professor of public relations, University of Maryland	34
3 Stakeholders: Community	36
Community Relationships May Fluctuate	36
Changing Definitions of Community	37
Results of Community Relations	37
Communicating With Community Publics	39
Additional Readings	39
Case 6. The Company for Women Pledges Support	40
Case 7. CharitaBulls Help Others Win at Life	44
Case 8. When It Comes to Your Lawn, Do It Naturally	48
Case 9. Habitat for Humanity: Building Corporate Bridges and Affordable Houses	52
Case 10. Community Service Constitutes Core Competency of Timberland	56
4 Stakeholders: Consumers	61
The Contemporary Consumer	61
Key Objectives	62
Integrated Communication	62
Business-to-Business Communication	63
Additional Readings	64
Case 11. “Would You Like Your Taco With or Without Pesticide Today?”	65
Case 12. A Change in Name—A Change in Image? From Prunes to Dried Plums	70

Case 13. Tire Tread Troubles Drive Firestone Into Crisis of Confidence	73
Case 14. A New Look for Work? Dockers Promotes Business Casual	79
Case 15. Warner Bros. (and Others) Are Wild About Harry	82
PROFESSIONAL INSIGHTS: Forming Effective Relationships With Journalists, by Lee Duffey, president and founder, Duffey Communications	86
5 Stakeholders: Media	88
Media Stakeholders Serve Intervening Publics	88
Purposes of Media Relations	88
The Self-Interests of the Media	89
Time Pressures in Media Relations	89
Electronic Media Relations	90
Up to Date and Easy to Use	91
No Substitute for Human Contact	91
Additional Readings	92
Case 16. Media Interest in Transplant Drama Stokes Anxiety in Health Care Professionals	93
Case 17. Phony News Release Leads to Losses for Investors and a Prison Term for Former College Student	100
Case 18. Sheik's Leisure Resort Project Gets Royal Treatment	105
Case 19. Bishops, Priests, and Reporters: The Catholic Church and Media Coverage of Sex-Abuse Scandals	110
Case 20. Bowling for Columbine Strikes Ammunition Sales at Kmart Corp.	115
6 Stakeholders: Investors	118
An Attractive Investment	118
Investment Bankers	119
Quiet Period Not Defined	120
SEC Goals	121
Institutional and Individual Investors	121
Paying Attention to Individuals	122

Additional Readings	122
Case 21. The Communications Company That Didn't Communicate: WorldCom Faces a World-Record Bankruptcy and Leadership Scandal	123
Case 22. Appearances or Substance: Which Is More Important?	127
Case 23. Consulting Company Gets New Name and New Owners	133
Case 24. Case of the Misfired Memo	137
PROFESSIONAL INSIGHTS: It's What We Do in Investor Relations That Matters, by Louis M. Thompson, Jr., president and CEO, National Investor Relations Institute	140
7 Stakeholders: Members and Volunteers	141
Communicating With Volunteers and Members	142
Special Concerns	143
Additional Readings	144
Case 25. Designated Donations? The American Red Cross and the Liberty Fund	145
Case 26. "Only in Saskatchewan": Government Campaign Solicits Youth Testimonials About Local Opportunities	151
Case 27. Colossal Fossil Dominates Chicago's Field Museum	156
Case 28. For Every Girl, Everywhere—Girl Scouts Prepare for the 21st Century	161
Case 29. A New Way for the United Way of the National Capital Area?	164
8 Stakeholders: Governments and Regulators	168
The Roles of Practitioners	168
Regulatory Complexities	169
Critics of Regulation	169
Protecting the Powerless	170
Additional Readings	173
Case 30. New Internet Cookie Recipe Gives Heartburn to DoubleClick	174

Case 31. “Working Together To Bring Peace”: Saudi Arabia Seeks to Improve Its U.S. Image	179
Case 32. Kick Ash Bash Sets Stage for Antismoking Campaign	182
Case 33. “Powerful” Campaign Seeks to Promote Healthy Bones	188
PROFESSIONAL INSIGHTS: A Higher Ethical Standard for Nonprofits, by James E. Moody, executive director, Georgia Society of Association Executives	190
9 Stakeholders: Activists	192
Activists Against SUVs	192
SUV Owners Organize	193
Purposes of Activism	193
Focusing on Social Problems	194
Framing a Message	194
An Underexamined Role	195
Additional Readings	195
Case 34. Passionate About Policies to Protect Poultry	196
Case 35. Greenpeace Pressures Chemical Producers to Reduce Risks of Chlorine Gas	202
Case 36. Activist Campaign in India Examines Soft Drinks	206
Case 37. Activists Keep Nike on the Run	211
Case 38. “Walking the Talk”—DuPont’s Land Legacy Program Donates 16,000 Acres to the Conservation Fund	218
10 Stakeholders: Global Citizens	222
Practitioners’ Role in a Global Market	223
Cultural Differences	223
Get Local Help	224
Overcoming Language Barriers	224
Paralysis or Hubris	225
Critics of Globalization	225
Adjust to Global Threats	226
Additional Readings	226

Case 39. Bayer Drug Recall Strains International Relationships	227
Case 40. Helios? A Greek God With a British Accent for a Global Company	232
Case 41. Publicis and the European Central Bank Introduce “The Euro—Our Money” to the World	238
Case 42. Red, White, Blue—and Golden? McDonald’s Responds to International Pressures	241
Case 43. Maritime Tragedy Compounded by Cultural Differences	245
Index	253