
	Introduction to the 1999 Edition	ix
1	The Big Picture	1
	Meeting the Challenge of New Competition • Technology at the Forefront • The Meaning of a 'Boom' • The 20th Century Growth Record • 21st Century Growth Will Double or Triple • How the U.S. Will Fare • Prosperity Amid Relative Decline • Labeling the Century Ahead • 50 Years of Amazing Change • A Technology Sampler • Alternative Scenarios • Sneak Previews of the 21st Century • A Millennium of Progress
2	Major Global Trends	19
	Higher Growth, Greater Wealth • Declining National Sovereignty • Government as Facilitators of Growth • Emergence of a Global Middle Class • Emulation of the American Growth Model • More Political Freedom and Democracy • Fewer World-Changing New Inventions • Integration of All Peoples into One Global Market • No Global Depression, but Plenty of Regional Slumps • Globalizing of Antitrust Policy • Economic Sanctions Will Wane • Low World Inflation • Broader Sharing of World Leadership • New Sources of Capital • Rising World Population, but a Lower Rate of Growth • Adequate Supplies of Food, Fuel, Water • No Worldwide Warfare, but Regional and Civil Strife • Worldwide Empowerment of Women
3	America's Bright Economic Future	41
	A Surge in Productivity • Adequate Capital for Growth • Foreign Role in U.S. Growth: Customers and Investors • American Multinationals Spread Their Reach • No End to Trade Deficits • Strong Foreign Investment in U.S. • American Firms Keep Moving Abroad • U.S. a 'Debtor Nation'? No Big Deal • The Mighty Dollar • U.S. Manufacturing: Alive and Well • The Reindustrializing of America • Low Inflation Ahead • Interest Rates Will Stay in Present Range • Coming Squeeze on Corporate Profits • Smoother Business Cycles • Shorter, Milder Recessions
4	Expanding World Markets	69
	Canada • Europe, West and East • The New Euro • Asia • China Rising • Japan: Finally Opening Up • India at a Crossroads • Ailing, but not Toothless, Tigers • Crisis in Indonesia • Taiwan Emerges Stronger • South Korea Tries Openness • Anglo-Asia: Australia and New Zealand • Latin America • Mexico Recovers from Crisis • Another New Dawn for Brazil • Venezuela Banks on Oil • Costa Rica: A Central American Success Story • The European Trade Challenge in Latin America • The Middle East and North Africa • Sub-Saharan Africa • Russia and the CIS

5	Government's Role in the U.S. Economy	107
	A Public Sector of Stable Size • The Government Spending Outlook • Supporting Tomorrow's Elderly • Medicare and Social Security Will Be Stabilized • The Structure of American Taxation • More Regulation of Daily Business Life • The Antitrust Revival • Standardization of Laws • A Trend Toward Freer Trade
6	Upheaval in Education and Training	127
	Distance Learning • Intense Business Involvement in Education • New Respect for Vocational Education • Improving Our Public Schools • Alternatives to Public Education • Big Changes Ahead for Higher Education
7	America's Standard of Living	145
	Global Comparisons • Personal Income Keeps Rising • Big Gains for Women, Racial Minorities and Seniors • The Distribution of Riches • Reasons Behind Growing Income Inequality • Social Mobility • The Outlook for Poverty • A Nation's Health Is More Than Wealth • Fears about America's Future
8	World Population Growth	165
	Young Nations, Old Nations • No Doomsday Ahead • Relentless Urbanization • A Declining World Population after Mid Century?
9	Constantly Changing American Population	173
	Growing, But More Slowly • The Graying of America • The Aging Boomers • The Baby-Boom Echo • Super Seniors • Generation X • Intergenerational Conflict Ahead • Surging Racial Diversity • Why Immigration Is Good for America • The Major Racial and Ethnic Groups • Where Americans Will Live • State-by-State Outlook • Hot Metro Areas • Political Impact of Regional Growth • The Growth Wild Card: Anti-Growth Sentiment • Households, Marriage and Divorce • Business Implications
10	Threats to the World Boom Ahead	203
	Military and Political Concerns • American Military Alliances and Preparedness • The Dilemma of Civil Wars • Mountains of Deadly Weapons • The Nuclear Threat • Terrorism and 'Weapons of Mass Destruction' • The Specter of Cyber-Sabotage • The Explosive Middle East • China's Growing Military Might • Conflict on the Asian Subcontinent • Tension in East Asia • Russia will Rise Again • Overpopulation, Famine and Disease • Government Corruption and Organized Crime
11	World-Changing Technology	215
	The Bounty of Technology • Troubling Technology Challenges

-
- 12 Ubiquitous Computers 221
- Flatter Growth in Computing Speed Ahead • Totally New Kinds of Chips
• Fast Growth in Non-PC Chip Markets • ‘Wintel’ PCs Versus Network
Computers • Competition from New Information Appliances • Antitrust and the Computer Industry • Superintelligent Software • Dictation and Translation from Print and Voice • Virtual Reality • The Ultimate Goal:
Ease and Transparency • Full Globalization of the Computer Industry
- 13 Telecommunications and Information Technology 229
- A Force for Freedom and Open Markets • The All-Powerful Internet • New Modes of Data Transmission • The Wired World • Phone Companies
• Cable TV • Electric Utilities • International Calls Through Oceanic Cables
• The Wireless Challenge • Cellular Phones and PCS Companies • TV and the Internet Come Together • Broadcast TV • Direct TV Comes on Strong—and then Radio, Too • Information by Satellite • Pricing and Regulatory Battles Ahead • Amazing New Appliances • Ubiquitous Electronic Spies
- 14 Biotech Takes Off 247
- Deciphering the Human Genetic Code • Medical Wonders • Attacking
Cancers • New Drugs for Every Disorder • Battling the Aging Process
• Attacks on Genetic Diseases • Human Drugs from Plants and Animals
• Animal Organs for Humans • The Future of Gene Therapy • The Promise of Cloning • Genetic Testing • Biotech’s Boost to the Food Supply
- 15 Robotics, New Materials and Energy 257
- Automation in Industry • Designing in Virtual Reality • New Materials for Every Purpose • Amazing Polymers • New Materials from Agriculture
• New Uses for Ceramics • Energy Technology • Electricity from Sun and Wind • Electricity from Hydrogen, Via Fuel Cells • Comeback for Nuclear Power? • The Ultimate Conservation Play: Superconductivity
- 16 Outlook for Key Industries 267
- The Money Business • Fully Global Markets • The New Look of Banking
• Rising Profitability in Financial Services • Delivering Health Care • The Government’s Role • The Employer’s Dilemma • New Focus on Prevention
• Home Health Care Boom • Telemedicine • The Energy Industry
• Serious Conservation • Plenty of Fossil Fuels • American Energy
Production • Nuclear Energy in Eclipse—for Now • Alternative Energy
Sources • Deregulation and Globalization • The Environment Business
• Corporate Initiatives • The Water Business • Farming and Food • Less Government in U.S. and World Agriculture • Agricultural Trade • The Food Industry • Globalization of Food • Retailing, Marketing and Media
• Catalogs and Online Shopping • Global Retailing • Targeted Advertising
• Housing and Construction • More Suburban Sprawl, but Urban Vitality,
-

World Boom Ahead

Too • Strong Demand for Housing • Moderately Rising Home Prices
• Slower Growth for Office Space • Strong Demand for Industrial Space
• Slower Growth in Retail Space • Transportation and Travel • Strains on Energy Supplies and the Environment • The Worldwide Auto Business
• Ever-Faster Trains • More Competition in Making Airplanes • Defense and Aerospace • Industrializing Outer Space • Commercial Satellites

17 The Future Shape of Business 321

New Business Structures • Ascendant Transnationals • Constant 'Rolling
Up' of Medium-Sized Firms • Growth by Acquisition • More Joint Ventures
• Questionable Profitability of Megamergers • The Demise of Big, Closely
Held Companies • The Securitizing of Everything • Improving Workplace
Standards • Converging Management Styles • The Internet as Business
Tool • Management and Marketing • Corporate Liability Will Be Limited
• Environmentalism in Every Decision • Growing Clout by Institutional
Investors • New-Style Executives • The Rise of the CIO • Itinerant CEOs, with Shorter Tours of Duty • Ever-Rising Executive Pay—While Times Are Good • The Geography of Business Growth • Fierce Competition in Economic Development • Growing Power of the Nonprofits • High Taxes
Ahead for Nonprofits

18 The Changing Way We Work 347

The Lengthening Workweek • Declining Job Loyalty • Telecommuting
• Self-Employment Boom • Tight Job Markets • Individual Empowerment
and Teamwork • More Scrutiny of Employees • Less Formal Affirmative Action • Continuing Decline in Union Power

19 Good Careers for Tomorrow 357

Science and Engineering • The Red Hot Internet • Good Fields for Social Science and Humanities Majors • Slow Growth for Middle Management and General Office Work • The Health Care Boom • Financial Services
• Making People Happy • Education • Good Jobs Without Much or Any College Required • Finding Your Career on the Internet

20 Investing for the Years Ahead 367

Greater Volatility Ahead • U.S. Equities • Higher Stock Valuation
• Overheated IPO Market • The U.S. Outlook • No Big U.S. Market Slump
15 Years from Now • Global Investing • The Strong Record of Global Markets • Contrarian Global Investing • Well-Priced Regional Markets
• Picking Top Multinationals • Success in Emerging-Markets Stocks

21 Postscript: The Kiplinger Record 381

Index 393
