

REČ NA OTVARANJU XLII KONGRESA ANTROPOLOŠKOG DRUŠTVA JUGOSLAVIJE

Cilj ovog priloga je da skrene pažnju na ulogu i značaj razmenjenog vođenog

Sa ponosom i zadovoljstvom ističem da je ovo sedmi skup Antropologa u Vojvodini, za 44 god. postojanja našeg Društva.

Članovi antropološkog društva, pored svih nesreća i zala koja su nas zadesila, uspeali su da očuvaju kontinuitet, nastave tradiciju okupljanja i izdavanja Glasnika.

Svi naši Kongresi su skupovi koji nas povezuju i doprinose razmeni mišljenja o mnogim problemima u oblasti antropologije i srodnih disciplina, učvršćuju naša prijateljstva i poznanstva, a iznad svega doprinose razmeni naučne misli.

Ne skrivajući svoju radost što smo se opet okupili najsrdačnije Vas pozdravljam sa željom da se prijatno osećate u Somboru, gradu na severu Bačke, rasadniku duhovnosti i kulture, koji je uvek poštovao i cenio goste i prijatelje iz zemlje i sveta.

It is my great pleasure to announce that this is the seventh meeting of anthropologists of Vojvodina in 44-year long period of the existence of our society.

In spite of all the hardships and misfortunes we have experienced, the members of Anthropological Association have managed to ensure the continuity of meetings and preserve the tradition of publishing the journal „Glasnik“.

Our congresses are an opportunity to exchange information on different issues in the field of anthropology and other related disciplines, to strengthen our friendship, and above all, to exchange scientific thought. Feeling pleased to see us gathered again, I would like to wish you a warm welcome and pleasant stay in Sombor, a town in the north of Bačka that has been the center of spirituality and culture and has always shown respect and hospitality to its guests, coming from our country and abroad.
