

Contents

Preface	v
Chapter
1 Defense Services on the Free Market	1
2 Fundamentals of Intervention	10
1. Types of Intervention	10
2. Direct Effects of Intervention on Utility	13
a. Intervention and Conflict	13
b. Democracy and the Voluntary	16
c. Utility and Resistance to Invasion	17
d. The Argument from Envy	18
e. Utility Ex Post	18
3 Triangular Intervention	24
1. Price Control	24
2. Product Control: Prohibition	34
3. Product Control: Grant of Monopolistic Privilege	37
a. Compulsory Cartels	41
b. Licenses	42
c. Standards of Quality and Safety	43
d. Tariffs	47
e. Immigration Restrictions	52
f. Child Labor Laws	55
g. Conscription	56
h. Minimum Wage Laws and Compulsory Unionism	56
i. Subsidies to Unemployment	57
j. Penalties on Market Forms	58
k. Antitrust Laws	59
l. Outlawing Basing-Point Pricing	63 [p. xii]
m. Conservation Laws	63
n. Patents	71
o. Franchises and “Public Utilities”	75
p. The Right of Eminent Domain	76
q. Bribery of Government Officials	77

r. Policy Toward Monopoly	79	(b) The Justice of the Standard	147
Appendix A. On Private Coinage	80	(3) Sacrifice Theory	149
Appendix B. Coercion and Lebensraum	81	(4) The Benefit Principle	153
4 Binary Intervention: Taxation	83	(5) The Equal Tax and the Cost Principle	158
1. Introduction: Government Revenues and Expenditures	83	(6) Taxation “For Revenue Only”	161
2. The Burdens and Benefits of Taxation and Expenditures	84	(7) The Neutral Tax: A Summary	161
3. The Incidence and Effects of Taxation, Part I: Taxes on Incomes	88	d. Voluntary Contributions to Government	162
a. The General Sales Tax and the Laws of Incidence	88	5 Binary Intervention: Government Expenditures	168
b. Partial Excise Taxes; Other Production Taxes	93	1. Government Subsidies: Transfer Payments	169
c. General Effects of Income Taxation	95	2. Resource—Using Activities: Government Ownership vs. Private Ownership	172
d. Particular Forms of Income Taxation	100	3. Resource—Using Activities: Socialism	184
(1) Taxes on Wages	100	4. The Myth of “Public” Ownership	187
(2) Corporate Income Taxation	101	5. Democracy	189
(3) “Excess” Profit Taxation	103	Appendix: The Role of Government Expenditures in National Product Statistics	199
(4) The Capital Gains Problem	103	6 Antimarket Ethics: A Praxeological Critique	203
(5) Is a Tax on Consumption Possible?	108	1. Introduction: Praxeological Criticism of Ethics	203
4. The Incidence and Effects of Taxation, Part II: Taxes on Accumulated Capital	111	2. Knowledge of Self-Interest: An Alleged Critical Assumption	205
a. Taxes on Gratuitous Transfers: Bequests and Gifts	112	3. The Problem of Immoral Choices	208
b. Property Taxation	113	4. The Morality of Human Nature	210
c. A Tax on Individual Wealth	116	5. The Impossibility of Equality	212
5. The Incidence and Effects of Taxation, Part III: The Progressive Tax	118	6. The Problem of Security	216
6. The Incidence and Effects of Taxation, Part IV: The “Single Tax” on Ground Rent	122	7. Alleged Joys of the Society of Status	218
7. Canons of “Justice” in Taxation	135	8. Charity and Poverty	221
a. The Just Tax and the Just Price	135	9. The Charge of “Selfish Materialism”	224
b. Costs of Collection, Convenience, and Certainty	137	10. Back to the Jungle?	226
c. Distribution of the Tax Burden	138	11. Power and Coercion	228
(1) Uniformity of Treatment	139	a. “Other Forms of Coercion”: Economic Power	228
(a) Equality Before the Law: Tax Exemption	139	b. Power over Nature and Power over Man	231
(b) The Impossibility of Uniformity	141 [p. xiii]	12. The Problem of Luck	234
(2) The “Ability-to-Pay” Principle	144	13. The Traffic-Manager Analogy	235
(a) The Ambiguity of the Concept	144	14. Over- and Underdevelopment	235
		15. The State and the Nature of Man	237

16. Human Rights and Property Rights	238	[p. xiv]
Appendix: Professor Oliver on Socioeconomic Goals	240
a. The Attack on Natural Liberty	241
b. The Attack on Freedom of Contract	244
c. The Attack on Income According to Earnings	247
7 Conclusion: Economics And Public Policy	256
1. Economics: Its Nature and Its Uses	256
2. Implicit Moralizing: The Failures of Welfare Economics	258
3. Economics and Social Ethics	260
4. The Market Principle and the Hegemonic Principle	262
Notes	267
Index	297	[p. 1]