

Table of Contents

Introduction	1
About This Book	1
Foolish Assumptions	2
Conventions Used in This Book	2
Icons Used in This Book	3
Part I: Setting Up and Starting Out	5
Chapter 1: Introducing Money	7
Starting Money	8
Creating a shortcut icon for Money	8
Pinning Money to the Start menu	8
Starting Money for the First Time	9
Discovering How Money Can Help You with Your Finances	11
Keeping accurate records of your spending and income	11
Categorizing your spending and income	12
Estimating your income taxes	13
Handling your investments	13
Pinching your pennies	14
Planning ahead	14
Banking online	14
Shutting Down Money	15
Chapter 2: The Basics	17
Getting Around in Money	17
Links for going from window to window	17
Toolbar buttons for getting around	18
Tabs for going to different windows	19
Customizing the Home Page Window	21
Browsing the Web in Money	22
Customizing the Toolbar	24
Chapter 3: Setting Up Your Accounts	27
Accounts and Registers for Recording Financial Transactions	27
The Basics: Setting Up Checking and Savings Accounts	30
Setting up a checking or savings account	30
Listing contact names, phone numbers, and other information	32

Changing an Account's Name or Type	34
Setting Up an Account to Track Credit Card and Line of Credit Transactions	35

Chapter 4: Recording Your Financial Activity 39

Opening an Account Register	39
Recording Transactions in Registers	42
Types of transactions	42
Entering a transaction	44
Splitting a Transaction	47
Recording a Deposit or Debit Card Purchase with Cash Back	49
Transferring Money between Accounts	51
Recording Transactions in Credit Card and Line of Credit Accounts	52
Recording credit card and line of credit charges	52
Recording a credit	54
Recording a credit card payment	54
Fixing Mistakes in Account Registers	55
Finding a transaction so that you can fix it	56
Changing or editing transactions	60
Voiding and Deleting Transactions	61
Moving a Transaction from One Account to Another	63
Printing a Register	64

Part II: Banking with Money 67

Chapter 5: Categorizing Your Spending and Income 69

Looking at the Ways to Categorize Income and Spending	70
By category	70
By subcategory	70
By classification	71
By tax-related status	71
Setting Up Your Own Categories and Subcategories	71
Creating a new category in the New Category dialog box	72
Creating a new subcategory	74
Editing and Refining a Category or Subcategory	75
Setting Up and Defining a Classification	77
Setting up a classification	78
Defining classes and subclasses	79
Correcting Transactions that Were Recorded in the Wrong Category	80
Moving all transactions from one category to another category	81
Reassigning transactions to new categories	82
Renaming and Deleting Categories and Classifications	84
Renaming a category or subcategory	84
Renaming a classification	85
Deleting a category or subcategory	85
Deleting a classification	87

Chapter 6: Reconciling, or Balancing, an Account89

How Reconciling Works	89
Balancing an Account	90
Telling Money which transactions cleared the bank	91
Fixing mistakes as you reconcile	94
Help! The Darn Thing Won't Reconcile!	94
A checklist of things to do if you can't reconcile	95
"AutoReconciling" an account	97
Forcing an account to balance	97
Reconciling a Credit Card Account	98

Chapter 7: Writing and Printing Checks101

Deciding What Kind of Check to Order	102
Ordering the Checks	103
Getting Your Printer Ready to Print Checks	105
Recording Checks that You Intend to Print	106
Testing to See Whether Checks Print Correctly	108
Printing a practice check	108
Making adjustments to the text alignment	109
Printing Your Checks	111
Printing a full sheet of checks	111
Printing partial sheets of checks	112
Whoops! My Checks Didn't Print Correctly	114

Part III: Money for Investors 117Chapter 8: Setting Up Investment Accounts119

Your Own Electronic Portfolio Manager	119
Setting Up an Investment Account for Tracking Securities	121
Setting Up a Retirement Account for Tracking Retirement Savings and Investments	124
Setting Up an Account to Track Employee Stock Options	128
Tracking Securities You Don't Own in a Watch Account	130

Chapter 9: Tracking the Value of Your Investments133

Recording Payments to (and Disbursements from) Brokers	134
Describing the Securities in Investment and Retirement Accounts	135
Handling Stocks	138
Recording a purchase of stocks	138
Recording the sale of stocks	139
Recording and reinvesting dividends from stocks	142
Recording stock splits, short sells, margin purchases, and other esoterica	142

Handling Mutual Funds	144
Recording the sale or purchase of mutual funds	145
Recording dividends and distributions	145
Handling Bonds	147
Recording the purchase of a bond	148
Recording interest payments from bonds	150
Other Kinds of Investments	150
Precious metals	151
Certificates of deposit	151
Editing and Deleting Investment and Retirement Account Transactions	151
Updating the Price of Securities	152
Downloading stock and mutual fund quotes from the Internet	153
Updating the price of securities on your own	155

Chapter 10: Researching and Analyzing Your Investments157

Analyzing Your Investments	157
Charting the Performance of an Investment	160
Reviewing Your Portfolio	161
Seeing How Well Your Investments Are Allocated	162
Generating Investment Reports	163
Being Alerted When a Security Hits a Certain Price	164
Researching Investments at MoneyCentral	165
Other Ways to Research Investments Online	166
Researching mutual funds on the Internet	166
Researching stocks on the Internet	167
Researching bonds on the Internet	168
Finding a Broker	169

Part IV: Getting Your Money's Worth 171

Chapter 11: Some Important Housekeeping Chores173

Backing Up and Restoring Money Files	173
Telling Money how to back up your financial data	174
Backing up your data file	176
Restoring a file from its backup copy	177
Transferring Your Money File to a New Computer	179
Pruning the Payees List	179
Organizing Your Favorite Accounts, Reports, and Web Sites	180
Protecting Files with a Password or Passport Network Credentials	181
Locking a file with a password or Microsoft passport	181
Opening a file that has been given a password	183
Changing and removing passwords	184

Deleting and Closing Bank Accounts184
 Closing an account185
 Deleting an account186
 Creating an Archive File for Past Transactions186
 Creating a Separate File for Financial Activity187
 Creating the separate file187
 Opening the Money file you want to work with188
 Renaming and Deleting Money Files189

Chapter 12: Pinching Your Pennies191

Scheduling Bills So That They Are Paid on Time191
 Scheduling a bill payment or deposit193
 How Money tells you to pay bills196
 Scheduling deposits, transfers, and investment purchases197
 Recording a scheduled transaction in a register197
 Skipping a scheduled transaction198
 Changing a scheduled transaction199
 Canceling a scheduled transaction199
 Budgeting with Money200
 Choosing between advanced and essential budgets201
 Getting started with an advanced budget202
 Enter your income: Telling Money about your income204
 Enter your expenses: Budgeting your monthly expenses207
 Savings goals: Declaring what to do with extra money208
 Budget summary and status208
 Formulating an essential budget209
 Seeing whether you met your budget goals210
 Working with more than one budget211
 Tracking Your Frequent Flyer Miles212

Chapter 13: Planning for the Years Ahead215

Being Alerted to Important Events215
 Projecting Your Cash Flow217
 Introducing the Lifetime Planner219
 About you: Telling Money about yourself and your dependents221
 Income: Describing your present and future income221
 Taxes & Inflation: Describing the tax and inflation rate222
 Savings & Investments: Describing your retirement savings223
 Expected Return: Describing how your money will grow224
 Homes & Assets: Describing things of value that you own or will own224
 Loans & Debt: Describing current and future loans224
 Expenses: Describing the cost of living225
 Results: Reading your financial future226
 Action Plan: What you should do next226
 Playing “what if” with your future227
 Planning to Get Out of Debt228

Chapter 14: Preparing for Tax Time231

Tagging Categories for Tax-Reporting Purposes	231
Looking at Line-Item Income and Expenses	234
Generating Tax Reports	235
Estimating Your Tax Bill	235
Scheduling Important Tax Dates	238
Getting Help for Lowering Your Tax Bill	238
Determining How Much to Withhold	239
Estimating Capital Gains Taxes	240
Exporting Money Data to a Tax-Preparation Program	242
Getting Tax Help on the Internet	244

Part V: Improving Your Financial Picture245Chapter 15: Reports and Charts for Seeing Where You Stand Financially247

A Look at the Reports Home Window	248
Looking at the Different Reports	250
Income and Expenses	250
Investment	251
Assets and Liabilities	252
Taxes	255
Comparison Reports: For comparing the past with the present ...	255
Monthly Reports	256
My Favorites	256
Creating a Report or Chart	256
Generating the report or chart	256
Turning reports into charts and charts into reports	257
Investigating the figures from which a chart or report is constructed	258
Customizing Reports and Charts	258
Adding a Customized Report or Chart to the Favorites Menu	263
Printing Reports and Charts	263
Getting ready to print a report or chart	264
Printing the report or chart	264
Exporting a Report or Chart	265

Chapter 16: Tracking Assets, Liabilities, Loans, and Mortgages .. .267

Understanding How to Track Assets, Liabilities, Loans, and Mortgages with Money	268
Tracking the Value of a House or Other Asset	269
Setting up an asset or house account	269
Recording changes in the value of an asset or house	270
Tracking Your Liabilities	272

Tracking Loans and Mortgages273
 Setting up a loan or mortgage account274
 Fixing loan or mortgage account errors279
 Recording loan and mortgage payments279
 Paying early and often281
 Adjusting loan account balances282
 Updating the interest rate on a loan or mortgage283

Part VI: Going Online with Money285

Chapter 17: Getting Ready to Go Online287

Reviewing the Online Services That Money Offers287
 Laying the Groundwork290
 The equipment you need290
 Disabling call waiting291
 Signing Up with Your Bank291
 Setting Up a Money Account So That It Works Online295
 Setting up an account for Web services296
 Setting up an account for direct services296
 Signing Up for MSN Bill Pay297
 Changing Your Mind about the Online Banking Services297

Chapter 18: Banking and Bill Paying Online299

Sending Banking Instructions over the Internet299
 Banking Online302
 Getting accurate, up-to-date account information302
 Viewing and updating a register whose transactions you
 downloaded304
 Paying the Bills Online307
 Recording the online payment307
 Stopping a payment after it's sent308
 Transferring money between accounts308

Part VII: The Part of Tens309

Chapter 19: Ten Things You Should Do Periodically311

Back Up Your Data File311
 Update Your Savings and Checking Account Registers312
 Balance Your Accounts312
 Balance Your Credit Card Accounts312
 Personalize the Home Page313
 Generate a Monthly Income and Expenses Report313
 Print Your Account Registers313
 Make an Archive File and Put It Away314
 Prune Your Payee List314
 Stop and Smell the Roses314

Chapter 20: Ten Ways to Good Health — Financially Speaking, That Is	315
Record Credit Card Transactions As You Make Them	315
Pay Off All Your Credit Card Debt	316
Leave Your Plastic at Home	316
Create a Spending by Category Chart	316
Create a Monthly Income and Expenses Report	317
Create a Budget	317
Plan Ahead for Your Retirement	317
Set Aside Money for a Rainy Day	317
Make Like a Young Dog — Learn New Tricks	318
Take the Day Off	318
Chapter 21: Ten Things to Do If You Are Self-Employed	319
Diligently Record Your Financial Activity	319
Make Sure That All Tax-Related Expenses Are Marked As Such	320
Print a Tax-Related Transactions Report for Your Accountant	320
Use the Memo Box Early and Often	320
Set Aside a Tenth of Your Income in a Savings Account	321
Schedule Your Quarterly Tax Payments	321
Use Classifications to Track Business Expenses	321
Open a Checking Account for Business Transactions	322
Write a Check to Yourself Periodically	322
Keep Your Irons on the Fire	322
Chapter 22: Ten Things Ex-Quicken Users Should Know about Money	323
You Can Use Your Old Quicken File in Money	324
You Can Find the Modified Transactions	325
Some Things Are Lost in the Conversion	325
Some Quicken Features Have No Equivalent in Money	325
In Money, Transactions Are Entered on Forms	326
Some Old Bank Transactions Are not Shown as Reconciled	326
Your Quicken Checks Are Good in Money	327
Quicken's Online Banking Services Are No Good with Money	327
Your Payee List Is Way, Way Too Long	328
Money Offers Help for Quicken Users	328
Glossary of Financial Terms	329
Index	333