AIMS AND SCOPE

Medical Journal is the official quarterly issued journal of the Institute for Research and Development of the Clinical Center University of Sarajevo and has been published regularly since 1994. Journal is published on the languages of the people of Bosnia and Herzegovina i.e. Bosnian, Croatian and Serbian language as well as in English.

The Medical Journal aims to publish the highest quality material, both clinical and scientific, on all aspects of clinical medicine. The Journal offers the reader a collection of contemporary, original, peer-reviewed papers, professional articles, review articles, editorials, together with special articles and case reports.

Notice: The full text of articles published in Medical Journal can be used for educational and personal aims i.e. reference cited according to authors permission. If the basic aim is commercial no any part of published materials may be use or reproduced without permission of the publisher. Special permission are available for education and non-profit educational classroom use. Electronic storage or usage: Except as outlined above, no part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted in any form or by any means without prior written permission of the Publisher.

Notice: The authors, editor and publisher do not accept responsibility for any loss or damage arising from actions or decisions based on information contained in this publication; ultimate responsibility for the treatment of patients and interpretation of published materials lies with the medical practitioner. The opinion expressed are those of the authors and the inclusion in this publication of material relating to specific product, method or technique does not amount to an endorsement of its value or quality, or of the claims made of it by its manufacturer.
