For more information about this title, click here.

Contents

Acknowledgments xi

README.DOC xii

Part I What You Need to Know About Getting Hired 1

Chapter 1 What Really Happens in the Interview Process 3

Hiring from the IT Manager's Perspective 3
Debunking the Myths of the Interview Process 6
Different Styles for Different Managers 9
Interview Styles to Be Prepared For 10
Checklist 12

Part II What to Do Before the Interview 13

Chapter 2 Acing the IT Résumé 15

The Ace Résumé Test 15
You Must Believe! 16
Reading the Hiring Manager's Mind 17
Getting Past the HR Recruiter to the Hiring Manager 19
The Anatomy of a Technical Résumé 20
The Final Test 28
Summing It All Up 29
Checklist 33

Chapter 3 Getting the Interview 35

The Other Kind of Networking 36
What Does that Ad Really Want? 38
Uncovering Hiring Needs 40
Recruiters and Employment Agencies 43
Outsourcing Firms and Temp Agencies 44
Put It in Writing 47
Checklist 50

Copyright 2002 by The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc. Click Here for Terms of Use.

Chapter 4 Standing Out in the Crowd 51
Getting Noticed for Good Reasons 51
Do Your Homework 52
Increasing Your Confidence 62
Checklist 68

Chapter 5 Making a Great First Impression 69
Mirror, Mirror, on the Wall: All About Appearance 69
Overcoming "First Date" Jitters 73
Timing Is Everything 75
Make Your First Impression a Lasting One 76
Checklist 79

Part III The Interview 81

Chapter 6 The Questions Everyone Asks—and Answers that May Surprise You 83
Can You Do the Job? 83
Will You Fit In? 87
Do You Want the Job? 90
How Much Will You Cost? 92
Checklist 93

Chapter 7 Mastering the Sticky Questions 95
The Strategies 97
Recent College Graduate 100
Over Fifty 106
Paper Certifications 109
Career Changers 113
Job Hoppers 117
Layoffs and Other Terminations 120
Questions You Don't Have to Answer 123
Checklist 127

Chapter 8 Special IT Interviewing Scenarios 129
Interview Settings 129
Testing What You Know 142
If You Apply for a Job at Microsoft 149
Checklist 150

Chapter 9 "Do You Have Any Questions?" 151
The End Already? 151
Why You Want to Ask Questions 152
Questions to Ask the Human Resource Specialist 152
Questions to Ask the Hiring Manager 153
Questions to Ask Others Who Work There 160
Closing the Deal 162
Checklist 162

Part IV Closing the Deal 163

Chapter 10 Staying on Top 165
The Art of Follow-up 165
Thank You Very Much 166
The Next Steps 169
Double Take: The Second Interview 170
Take Two: Second-Round Follow-up 175
Checking Up on Your References 175
Checklist 176

Chapter 11 Evaluating Offers 177
Getting the Offer 177
Evaluating the Offer 179
It's All About the Money 180
Checklist 186

Part V Interview Encyclopedia 187

Chapter 12 Getting Past the Technical Interview 189
Database Administrator 191
Desktop Support Technician 201
E-commerce Architect 214
Helpdesk Manager 222
Helpdesk Specialist 229
Independent Consultant 237
IT Management (Director of IT or IT Manager) 240
Network Administrator 247
Network Engineer 259
Network Support Technician 268
Programmer 277

Project Manager 287
Quality Assurance Specialist 294
Security Specialist 303
Web Designer 312
Web Developer 322

Part VI Appendices 343

Appendix A Staying Connected: IT Resource Links 345

Sounding Like an IT Pro 345
Getting the Job Done: Manufacturer Support, Downloads, and Utilities 347
Staying Fresh: Training and Certification 350
Staying in the Loop: Essential E-mail Newsletters for IT Professionals 351
Getting What You're Worth: Salary Surveys 351
Networking: Professional Associations 352
Job Portals 353

Appendix B Accessing the Brainbench Online Assessment 355

Index 357